A Lee W. Hickok Novel

WILLIAM LYLES

In The Plumber, Lee W. Hickok, MD, an alcoholic urologist, is faced with case after case of patients from the skid-row of Galveston Texas, who have had one or both kidneys removed by a Surgeon who calls himself The Plumber.

Suspects range from a local urologist, to a mysterious Russian emigrant and his esoteric wife, to one of his own residency staff.

Lee W. Hickok is the protagonist in the series which goes by his name, and includes the novels 606 University, Sweet Amber, and Huntsville. He is continuously plagued by resisting his desires for alcohol, which he has given up after sustaining a course of the D/T's in Sweet Amber. The Plumber is a fast passed who-done-it novel which will leave the reader wanting for more.
