UNIVERSITY

A Lee W. Hickok Novel

WILLIAM LYNES

In the new suspense novel, 606 University, the alcohol-compromised urologist, Lee W. Hickok, is re-introduced to the world.

The scream pierced the stormy night and aroused the unconscious man like the blast of a billiard ball break. Shocked awake, Lee W. Hickok wondered for a moment if he had died. The shriek left a haunting echo shooting through the upper floor of the old fraternity. The cry drilled through his cortex; such a tormented and tortured sound like a ratchet in his intoxicated brain.

In a tragic opening scene, the beautiful heiress, Siobhan Maloney, falls to her death at a debauched fraternity party located at Zeta of Phi Chi on 606 University Avenue. Hickok is a intoxicated sole witness.

The question? Was Siobhan pushed or did she, as her prior history might suggest, jump to a sad death? There are suspects galore including lovers, sexual predators; as well as Lee W, her prior lover.

606 University is a fast paced who done it look at infidelity, alcoholism, and the world of university politics and medicine.
